

GODCHASERS CHURCH | PERSONAL GUIDE

Easter + 12th Anniversary

April 5, 2026 | 1 message

"When Jesus gets up, every high thing must come down."

ANCHOR Philippians 2:9-11

A WORD BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Twelve years of GodChasers, and one Sunday to say the whole gospel in a word: stained. Sin left a mark nobody could scrub out - and the blood covered it. This is the message for the person who thinks they're too far gone. Read it twice. Share it once.

How to use this guide: one week at a time. Read the scripture slowly, let The Word preach, say the declaration out loud - actually out loud - and pray the prayer like you mean it. The lines at the end are yours.

WEEK 1 | SUNDAY, APRIL 5

Stained: The Blood Deals with the Mess

The blood deals with the mess; the Word deals with the rest

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow."

- Isaiah 1:18, KJV

Read also: Isaiah 1:18 | John 4:10-14 | Matthew 26:26-29

THE WORD

Some stains come out with effort. Scrub hard enough, soon enough, and the shirt survives. And some stains are crimson - set into the fibers, permanent by every earthly measure. Isaiah picks that exact word on purpose. Your sin isn't a smudge. It's a dye job.

Which is why the gospel is not a self-improvement plan. You don't do enough to get grace; He does everything else. The blood deals with the mess - salvation, once, completely. The Word deals with the rest - sanctification, daily, patiently.

Twelve years of this church and the message hasn't moved an inch: you are not perfect, you are purchased. Not sinless - sin-covered. White as snow isn't a metaphor for trying harder. It's a receipt.

"Some stains you can't get out; only the blood of Jesus can remove crimson stains."

REFLECT

1. What stain have you believed was too deep for God to remove?
2. 'Not perfect, purchased.' How does that change how you see yourself?
3. Who needs to hear the crimson-to-snow story from you this season?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I am not perfect; I am purchased.

My crimson is covered; my record is white as snow.

The blood dealt with my mess; the Word is dealing with my rest.

I will never be too stained for the Savior.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Invite one person who thinks they're too stained for church to next Sunday.

PRAYER

Jesus, thank You for doing what no scrubbing could do. Take the stain I stopped fighting and the shame I kept wearing. Then teach me, day by day, to live washed. In Your name, Amen.
