

Relationship Holes!

GODCHASERS CHURCH | PERSONAL GUIDE

February One-Offs

February 2026 | 2 messages

A WORD BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Two Sundays between series, and neither one wasted. One dealt with the holes we bring into love. The other dealt with the fear that storms in when life shakes. Short series, long shelf life.

How to use this guide: one week at a time. Read the scripture slowly, let The Word preach, say the declaration out loud - actually out loud - and pray the prayer like you mean it. The lines at the end are yours.

Relationship Holes

Condition over position

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"Wilt thou be made whole?"

- John 5:6, KJV

Read also: John 5:6

THE WORD

Jesus asked a man who had been sick for thirty-eight years a question that sounds almost rude: do you want to be made whole? He asks it because wholeness costs something the man had stopped budgeting for - the willingness to stop decorating the hole and start healing it.

You can have treasure in you and trauma on you at the same time. Most relationship problems aren't position problems - wrong person, wrong timing. They're condition problems - unhealed places colliding in the dark.

Wholeness isn't found in a person. It's brought to one.

"It's not about position, it's about condition."

REFLECT

1. Jesus asked, 'Will thou be made whole?' Why would He ask that?
2. What's the difference between position and condition in a relationship?
3. Where might there be treasure in you but trauma on you?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I want to be made whole, and I'm willing to be honest to get there.

It's not about my position; it's about my condition.

I will heal the hole, not decorate it.

I bring wholeness into love; I don't hunt for it there.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Ask God to show you one hole you've been decorating instead of healing - and tell someone safe.

PRAYER

Jesus, You asked the question because You already had the healing. Yes - I want to be made whole. Start with the hole I've been hiding the longest. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 2 | SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15

9:19 Worship Experience

Fear is a spirit, and it is not from God

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

- 2 Timothy 1:7, KJV

Read also: Psalm 61:1-2 | 2 Timothy 1:7 | Proverbs 4:20-22

THE WORD

Fear is not a personality trait. It's a spirit, and it has a strategy: find the thought, feed the lie, flood the mind. Which means fighting it isn't about trying harder to feel brave. It's about anchoring deeper in what God actually said.

The method is simple enough to use in traffic: identify the thought and the lie underneath it, find the one scripture that destroys it, and speak that scripture out loud every single time the fear talks. You are under construction, and God is excavating to deepen your faith - the shaking is part of the build.

"Identify the thought and the lie, find one anchor scripture that destroys it, and speak it continually."

REFLECT

1. What storm is testing your stability right now?
2. What's one anchor scripture you can speak against a lie this week?
3. How do we help each other stay focused when fear gets loud?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

God has not given me the spirit of fear.
I have power, love, and a sound mind.
I answer every lie out loud with the Word.
My stability is a Person, not a circumstance.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Write your anchor scripture on a card. Speak it out loud every time the fear talks.

PRAYER

Father, when the storm talks, give me a louder scripture. Anchor my mind so deep in Your Word that fear has to shout over Your voice - and it can't. In Jesus' name, Amen.
