

GODCHASERS CHURCH | PERSONAL GUIDE

Winning Season

April - May 2026 | 5 messages

"You're not fighting for victory - you're fighting from it."

ANCHOR Romans 8:37

A WORD BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Five weeks, one thesis: you're not fighting for victory, you're fighting from it. Define the win. Train for it. Aim at it. Wrestle the right opponent. And when it's time, hand the baton off well. Every season is winning season when you're on the right team.

How to use this guide: one week at a time. Read the scripture slowly, let The Word preach, say the declaration out loud - actually out loud - and pray the prayer like you mean it. The lines at the end are yours.

WEEK 1 | SUNDAY, APRIL 12

Defining the WIN! (Romans 8:37)

Victory is a starting point, not a finish line

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

- Romans 8:37, KJV

Read also: Romans 8:37 | Philippians 3:12

THE WORD

Read the verse again and notice the preposition: through Him. Not through timing, performance, or results. The win was never yours to produce - only yours to live from. That changes the whole posture of a year.

Most believers fight for victory, hoping to arrive. Scripture says you fight from victory, having already been placed on the winning team. If God be for you, who can be against you?

The one thing that usually needs adjusting isn't your schedule or your circumstances. It's your heart position. Where your treasure is, your heart is - and this series starts by moving the treasure.

"If God be for you, then who can be against you?"

REFLECT

1. What does 'fighting from victory, not for it' change about your week?
2. Where have you been measuring the win by timing or performance?
3. What is 'the one thing' in your heart position right now?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I am more than a conqueror through Him that loved me.

I fight from victory, not for it.

My win was defined at the cross, not at my performance.

Every season on Jesus' team is winning season.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Start each morning this week saying Romans 8:37 before you check your phone.

PRAYER

Father, fix my definition of winning before You fix anything else. Center my heart on Jesus so completely that the scoreboard loses its grip on me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 2 | SUNDAY, APRIL 19

Training for Reigning (1 Corinthians 9)

Rehearsal is where the ring is won

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"So run, that ye may obtain."

- 1 Corinthians 9:24, KJV

Read also: 1 Corinthians 9:24-27 | 1 Samuel 17:34-50

THE WORD

David didn't meet Goliath in a growth spurt of courage. He met him carrying receipts - a lion and a bear, fought in fields where nobody was watching. The private battles were the training camp for the public giant.

You don't win your fights in the ring. You win them in rehearsal. The discipline nobody sees, the appetite nobody knows you crucified, the prayer nobody heard - that's where the reigning gets trained.

Whatever you're going through right now is preparation for your next season. Grab it by the beard - take control of what has been trying to control you.

"You don't win your fights in the ring; you win them in rehearsal."

REFLECT

1. What lion-and-bear battles is God using to train you privately?
2. Why do we want ring victories without rehearsal?
3. What's being rehearsed in your life right now?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

My private discipline is building my public victory.

I have lion-and-bear receipts, and Goliath doesn't scare me.

Everything I'm walking through is training for reigning.

I run to obtain, not just to participate.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Pick one private discipline and do it daily - nobody gets to know but God.

PRAYER

Lord, make me faithful in the fields nobody sees. When I'm tired of rehearsal, remind me what it's for. Train my hands for the giant You already scheduled. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 3 | SUNDAY, APRIL 26

Ready... Aim... Shoot! (2 Kings 13)

Sin means missing the mark - so aim

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

Read: 2 Kings 13:14-18 | Philippians 3:13-14

THE WORD

Elisha told King Joash to shoot an arrow, then to strike the ground - and the king struck three times and stopped. The prophet was angry: you should have struck five or six. The victory was sized by the striking. Heaven had more; the king aimed low.

Sin literally means missing the mark. Which means the opposite of sin isn't just clean living - it's aim. A life pointed deliberately at God's target, arrow after arrow.

If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, you need a team. Write down the mark you're aiming at, then keep shooting - past the miss, past the three strikes that felt like enough.

"If you want to go fast, go alone. But if you want to go far, you need a team."

REFLECT

1. Sin means 'missing the mark.' Where is your aim off?
2. Who's on your team - and who should be?
3. What does 'keep shooting' look like after a miss?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I aim at the mark and I keep shooting.
I will not stop at three strikes when God said six.
My arrows are pointed at purpose, not at applause.
I run with a team because I intend to go far.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Write down the mark you're aiming at this quarter. One sentence. Tape it up.

PRAYER

God, forgive the arrows I never fired and the low aim I called humility. Show me the mark, hand me the quiver, and don't let me stop early. In Jesus' name, Amen.

WEEK 4 | SUNDAY, MAY 3

Wrastling (Ephesians 6:12)

You've been wrestling the wrong opponent

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers..."

- Ephesians 6:12, KJV

Read also: Ephesians 6:12 | Genesis 32:22-30

THE WORD

Half the exhaustion in your life comes from wrestling opponents God never scheduled - people, mostly. That coworker, that relative, that ex. Ephesians is blunt: flesh and blood was never the match card.

Jacob wrestled God all night at Peniel and walked away with two souvenirs: a new name and a limp. The limp wasn't punishment. It was a conversion - a fighter's strength turned into a leaner's dependence. When your wrestling turns to leaning, that's when you win.

Release the person. Book the real match. God can handle your honesty all night long.

"When your wrestling turns to leaning, that's when you win."

REFLECT

1. Who have you been wrestling that you should have released?
2. What would wrestling with God - instead of people - look like?
3. Jacob limped away blessed. What has your limp taught you?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I release the people I've been wrestling.

My real fight is not with flesh and blood.

I will wrestle with God until I learn to lean on God.

My limp is proof I met Him, and I'm not ashamed of it.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Release one person you've been wrestling - pray for them by name instead.

PRAYER

Father, I've been fighting people and calling it faithfulness. Tonight I book the real match. Wrestle me until my grip becomes a lean. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Distance Between Two Points

How you walk the in-between decides the finish

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

"Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all."

- Psalm 34:19, KJV

Read also: Psalm 34:19 | Jeremiah 29:13 | 1 Chronicles 12:32

THE WORD

Mother's Day, and the finale came from Pastor Cassandra Robertson: the distance between two points - trouble and blessing, promise and possession - is measured by what you do in the in-between spaces.

The greatest distance in existence is between us and God, and heaven closed it first. Now every other gap in your life has a set of shorteners: prayer shortens the distance. Worship shortens the distance. Obedience shortens the distance.

And don't settle mid-journey. No more slight healings - total breakthrough, complete deliverance. Some of us stopped walking one mile short of the promise.

"Prayer shortens the distance. Worship shortens the distance. Obedience shortens the distance."

REFLECT

1. What in-between space are you walking through right now?
2. Prayer, worship, obedience - which one shortens your distance this season?
3. Where do you need total breakthrough instead of a slight healing?

DECLARE THIS ALOUD

I walk the in-between with prayer, worship, and obedience.

The distance is shrinking every day I don't quit.

No more slight healings - I receive total breakthrough.

The Lord delivers me out of them all. All.

LIVE IT THIS WEEK

Choose your distance-shortener this week: prayer, worship, or obedience. Daily.

PRAYER

Lord, thank You for closing the greatest distance first. Teach me to walk the in-between like somebody who knows how the story ends. In Jesus' name, Amen.
